About the Boys & Girls Club

The Club has full time professional staff and is supported by part-time workers and volunteers. The Boys & Girls Club nurtures young people by instilling in them a sense of belonging, usefulness, influence and competence. Our programs and activities are carefully designed to support our Movement Youth Development strategies.

The Mission

The mission of the Boys & Girls Club of Harrisburg is to serve as a neighborhood based organization committed to serving youth of all backgrounds in developing self-esteem and character and to help them become responsible citizens by providing physical, recreational, social, educational, and vocational programs.
